

In Memory of Kevin Jackson, 1969-2019

Head and shoulders portrait of Kevin Jackson against a crowd of people assembled outdoors. Kevin is smiling and looking slightly upwards into the camera. He is wearing black-framed glasses, a silver eyebrow ring, a black toque, and a brown sweater with a black jacket.

Photo courtesy of Melissa Graham

This volume is devoted to the memory of Kevin Jackson, who passed away suddenly in July 2019. Kevin was a PhD student in Critical Disability Studies (York University), a lifelong Mad and disability activist, and a key organizer of the Toronto Disability Pride March.

Editorial Team

Natalie Spagnuolo

Melissa Graham

David Lawson

B. Anne Jackson